TOBACCO MARKETING QUOTA REFERENDA FOR BURLEY, SUN-CURED AND MARYLAND TOBACCO TO BE HELD FEBRUARY 22 - 25

Appomattox County farmers who grow burley, sun-cured or Maryland tobacco are reminded about the marketing quota vote to be held by mail the week of February 22-25.

Any person who had a share in the 1976 crop of burley, sun-cured or Maryland tobacco or its proceeds - as owner, operator, share tenant, or sharecropper - is eligible to vote in the referendum. Also, each person who was either the owner or operator of a farm for which a 1976 tobacco acreage allotment was established is eligible to vote, even though no tobacco was actually produced on the farm, if the allotment was preserved for history purposes.

In this referendum growers will have the choice of approving quotas for the next three crops, or of disapproving the quota program. At least two-thirds of the growers voting must approve quotas by voting "YES" if they are to be in effect.

A favorable vote will mean a continuation of the present tobacco program for Burley and sun-cured tobacco. This program, if approved by producers will provide price support on the 1977, 1978, and 1979 crops of burley, sun-cured and Maryland tobacco.

An unfavorable vote will mean no quotas, no penalties and no price support on the 1977 crop of burley, sun-cured and Maryland tobacco. In this event, another referendum would be held next year on quotas for the following three crops.

Ballots have been mailed to all know eligible voters. If you feel that you are eligible to vote in any of these referenda and you did not receive a ballot, you may come by the ASCS office and get one.

We urge all eligible growers to mark their ballots and return them to the county office before midnight, February 25.

REMINDER TO FIRE - CURED TOBACCO GROWERS - The fire-cured tobacco markets will have final sales on February 22, 23, and 24. Producers are required to return the marketing cards to the ASCS office when they have completed their sales, so please mail or bring them to the office as soon as possible.

Richard S. O'Brien

Rites Held For Appomattox Native

(Reprint of article from Feb. 9, 1977 edition of Charlotte News, Charlotte, N.C.)

Memorial services for Richard S. "Dick" O'Brien, 36, general manager for Henderson Volkswagen, Inc., 1500 W. Independence Blvd., Charlotte, N. C., were held at 12:30 p.m., Feb. 10, at McEwen West Chapel. The Rev. Jack Eubanks minister of the New Life Presbyterian Church officiated, assisted by Rev. O. G. Burnette.

O'Brien, of 1228 Allenbrook Dr., Charlotte, died of a heart attack yesterday while attending a meeting of the Greater Charlotte Dealers Association on shorter business hours during the natural gas shortage.

"He was the type of individual you could go in his office and talk to him" said Chuck Hammond, sales manager at Henderson Volkswagen. "He never closed his door.

Dick had a very good outlook on life. For Volkswagen, 1974 and 1975 were very rough years and he was very positive that things were getting better and the economy was coming back.

He was very much in favor of what President Carter was doing and the way in which (N.C. Governor) Jim Hunt was taking hold.

"He was very political-minded, talked about politics quite a bit."

Hammond said favorite political themes of O'Brien were the crime rate (too high), taxes (also to high) and free enterprise (too much government meddling.)

O'Brien was also a sportsman, playing tennis frequently and fishing in Lake Wylie, Hammond said.

"Before his first heart attack in June, he played five or six games a day, averaged about three times a week.

"He loved fishing. We'd go crappie fishing at Lake Wylie, I remember when he caught an 8-pound large-mouth bass about a year and a half ago. He had it mounted.

"I heard the story a thousand times, he was just so enthusiastic."

O'Brien's enthusiasm was "unusual" for him, Hammond said.

"He wasn't the type that yells and screams. He was very calm about each obstacle we had to come across. Very easy-going, smoked a pipe."

In the New Life Presbyterian Church congregation, O'Brien was known as an active church member, said Eubanks.

"His strong emphasis was God's love and forgiveness. His primary interest outside of his job was Jesus Christ and the church. He was active in witnessing - low -key, but very effective," he said.

O'Brien, a native of Appomattox, Va., was born Aug. 21, 1940. He had lived in Charlotte 12 years.

A founding member and deacon of the New Life Presbyterian Church, O'Brien taught a senior high Sunday school class, sang tenor in the church choir, and also conducted Sunday school classes for boys at Jackson Training in Cabarrus County.

He was a member of the Westgate Masonic Lodge and was active in Little League baseball.

Survivors include his wife, Sylvia; two sons, Richard S. Jr. and Sean O'Brien; a daughter, Bonnie Shea O'Brien; his mother, Mrs. Margaret O'Brien of Appomattox; four brothers, Tommy and Dr. Clyde O'Brien of Appomattox, and James and Wyatt O'Brien of Chase City, Va.; and five sisters, Miss Claudine O'Brien and Mrs. Nelwyn Smith of Appomattox, Mrs. Oweida Persinger of Eagle Rock, Va., Mrs. Maureen Hockman of West Point, Va. and Mrs. Eloise Burnette of Virginia.

McEwen Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Hugh M. Foster

BROOKNEAL - Hugh Milton Foster, 58, of Rt. 2, Brookneal, died Sunday afternoon in a South Boston Hospital. His wife is Mrs. Marion Woosley Shotwell Foster.

Born in Campbell County December 13, 1918, he was a son of the late Scott Foster and Carrie Daniel Foster. He was a member of Falling River Baptist Church, a veteran of World War II and a farmer and truck driver.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by a son, Wayne Milton Foster of Richmond; a stepson, Jim Shotwell of Nathalie; three brothers, Russell Foster, Shelton Foster and Herman Foster of Lynchburg, and two sisters,, Mrs. Innis Wilbun of Brookneal and Mrs. Harry St. John of Pamplin.

Funeral services were conducted at 2 p.m. Tuesday in Falling River Baptist Church. Burial was in the church cemetery.

S. E. Eggleston

Stuart Eldridge Eggleston, age 57, of 5208 Campbell Avenue, Richmond, died February 10, 1977. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Joyce Eggleston; three daughters, Mrs. Karen Roach, Mrs. Barbara Wilbert and Mrs. Connie Harris; one son, Michael Eggleston; one brother, Floyd Eggleston; two sisters, Mrs. Katherine Long and Mrs. Phyllis Dunn; eight grandchildren. Funeral services were held at the chapel of Nelsen Funeral Home. Interment was in Washington Memorial Park.

Mrs. Sarah Rhinehart Mc- Laughlin

Mrs. Sarah Rhinehart Mc-Laughlin died Tuesday morning.

Born in Licking County, Ohio, she was a widow of Charles Edward McLaughlin.

She is survived by a son, Charles E. McLaughlin of Pamplin, one grandson, Grahame E. McLaughlin of Evergreen; one great granddaughter, Mary Helen McLaughlin of Evergreen; and two sisters, Mrs. F. G. Varner of Granville, Ohio and Della Mae Hesson of Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Graveside funeral services will be held in Barnes County, Louisville, Ohio at a date and time to be announced later.

I would like to share this little thought with you all.

Is Bread Enough?

Jesus gave a remarkable answer. He said, "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God."

Well, where does one find these life-giving words which are more vital than food? The only source of which I know is the Bible.

In that Book there is something for each one of us, whether our belly is gnawing or too full; whether we have lost an adored child or our house has burned; whether we are out of work or successful, but empty at the core. In fact, Jesus summarized the whole matter by identifying Himself as the Bread of life. Sometimes when I'm faced with tempation or problems or heartache, I say to myself right out loud, "Jesus Christ is my food and drink, my strength, my serenity, and my health." This simple statement brings an amazing peace to my heart. Then I pick up my Bible and spend some time with Him. For if we expect to be filled, we must eat. Perhaps you too, have found in Him, the Bread of Life. But if not, just open your Bible and ask Him to meet your need. I promise He'll be waiting and you'll be satisfied.
